

Katherine Carver Photography

Distinctive Fine Art

SESSION INFORMATION

A photography session with Katherine Carver is an investment in high quality images that you will enjoy for a lifetime. Katherine utilizes a fun, highly individualized, and customized approach to meet your needs. Katherine will produce a range of photographs including full body, headshots, and more abstract shots utilizing unique markings and features of each individual dog.

Katherine has an assortment of toys, 100% natural treats, and brushes on hand which will be utilized during the photography session. If there is a toy that your dog is attached to, please bring it with you to the photography session. You may be required to participate in the handling process. This is determined on a dog-by-dog basis.

DOG COMMISSION FEES

Katherine photographs on location for all photography sessions, described in further detail below. All photography sessions include:

- travel time;
- processing and professional editing of your images;
- a selection of the strongest images presented in a private online gallery uploaded for viewing within three days after your photography session. Digital images appearing in your online gallery can be created in either color or black and white; or you may select a combination of color and black and white images to suit your individual needs. You can indicate your individual preferences at the time of the photography session;
- three 8 x 10 inch or three 5 x 7 inch archival prints selected by Katherine;
- a complimentary digital jpeg file selected by Katherine for your social media use; and
- a feature of your photography session on the blog, www.biscuitsspace.com.

A 50% deposit is due at the time that you schedule your photography session. Please note that travel fees may apply for locations outside of the Baltimore geographic area.

Traditional Session - $300.00

Includes all of the items listed above, including two hours of Katherine's time and approximately twenty-five to thirty images appearing in your online gallery.

Treasure Session - $250.00

Katherine offers the Treasure Session, a special photography session for terminally ill or elderly furry family members. Katherine coordinates these sessions as they are needed, often on very short notice, and Katherine is happy to travel to your home. These sessions are offered at a reduced rate, and include all of the items listed above, including two hours of Katherine's time and approximately twenty-five to thirty images in your online gallery.

Custom Session - Price to be determined.

Katherine offers customized photography sessions to meet your individual needs. Please contact Katherine to discuss your needs. These customized sessions will be quoted on an individualized basis.

If you have more than one dog that you would like photographed, the fee is $200.00 for each additional dog, which includes all of the items contained above in the bullet point list.
